

Title: Design criteria for public spaces– WS12

Lecturer: Prof. Thomas Römhild

- Ph.D. in architecture, University of Hannover
- Dean / Vice Dean of the Faculty of Architecture at the University of Wismar
- Vice-Rector of the University of Wismar
- Co-founder of the Institute for Building + Energy + lighting design, IGEL, Wismar
- Course Director Master Lighting Design at the University of Wismar

Length: 3 hours

Headlines:

- Design criteria for the public space,
- Defining the goal related through stake holder values
- Finding the stake holder values by:
 - Analysis of the architectonical situation (day/night situation)
 - Analysis of the social situation (human behaviour/ human needs)
 - Analysis of the economic situation (costs and benefits)
- Describing the goals regarding:
 - function, identity, emotion
 - Master planning

Target Audience:

- Lighting designers
- urban planners

Educational Prerequisites:

please bring information about the place where you live or work as pictures, maps or other media

Language: English

Venue: Olympic Hotel
No. of Participants: 30